No 1276
Dasr 714-92

Dt 22nd February 1902 -

Sir,

When I visited the Gumbaz at Seringapatam, some days ago, in company with the Sub-Dn Officer of French Rocks, I observed that the Bubbarchikkhana (cook-room) there of was in a very dilapidated condition. As the Urus of Tippu Sultan comes off early next month, I have given personal orders to the Amildar to have the repairs of the cook-room put in hand at once and to submit a regular Estimate therefor through the proper channel.

2 I am to request that you will be so good as to issue the necessary instructions to-the Amildar to have the work completed before the commencement of the Wells and submit a in the meanwhile regular Estimate for the formal sanction of Govt.

3. The Amildar may be if necessary
given some advance for the purpose, from the Famine Funds so that he may carry out the immediately
work in Amani, with the help of the Nazim.

4. An early report as to the action taken in the matter is requested.

I have &c
